We are proud to announce that Sharanya Durge, a talented student from Class 6 E, has achieved a remarkable feat by winning two gold medals in the All India Karate Championship On 28th September 2025. Her hard work, dedication, and passion for martial arts have brought great pride to our school.

Sharanya competed with participants from across the country and showcased exceptional skill, discipline, and sportsmanship throughout the tournament. Her victory not only reflects her personal excellence but also serves as an inspiration for her fellow students to pursue their goals with determination.

Congratulations to Sharanya on this outstanding achievement! We wish her continued success in all her future endeavours.
