FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK: BEYOND THE HORIZON

Dr. Abha Jadhav, Director, New Horizon Public School, Airoli

To our magnificent students, inspiring parents, and the extraordinary team that defines NHPSA:

Welcome to the year-end celebration! This newsletter isn't a report card; it is a rocket launch. It captures the sheer velocity of learning, innovation, and heart that has propelled our school community forward this year.

We often speak of the future-ready citizen, but here at NHPSA, we don't wait for the future—we build it. This year, we intentionally blurred the lines between the textbook and the real world. You will soon read about how our students didn't just consume knowledge; they created it. They didn't just memorize solutions; they collaborated to solve complex, novel challenges. Every project, every competition, and every classroom discussion was designed as a forging process—creating resilience, critical thought, and a burning passion for discovery

Prepare to discover the stories behind the headlines:

- The dazzling results of our NEP 2020 framework coming to life, focusing on skill building over rote memorization.
- The vibrant photographs and thrilling narratives showcasing exceptional achievements in our cultural festivals, competitive sports, and academic contests.
- The dedication of our faculty, detailing the intensive workshops, trainings, and successful induction programs that continuously elevate the student learning experience. Heartwarming stories of community outreach that truly embody the 'Public School' in our name.

This is the year New Horizon truly shone, defined not by what we covered, but by how far we dared to reach. I challenge you to turn the page with the same enthusiasm our students brought to every day. Explore the pages ahead, celebrate the triumphs within, and join us as we continue to define what is possible at New Horizon Public School. With great pride and anticipation,

Dr. Abha Jadhav

Director

New Horizon Public School, Airoli
