Curriculum

@NEW HORIZON GROUP OF SCHOOLS

Foundational Years

The Foundational Stage (ages 3-8) is designed to nurture young learners through play-based and activity-based learning. The primary objective is to develop cognitive, affective, and psychomotor abilities in children through various teaching learning activities. Core to this approach is building foundational literacy and numeracy skills, setting a strong base for future learning. Through a blend of fun and learning, we aim to create a stimulating environment that supports overall growth and development.

Preparatory Years

The Preparatory Stage (ages 8-11) focuses on discovery-based, interactive learning. The objective during this stage is to build foundational skills while gradually introducing more formal classroom learning. Key features include experiential learning, where students actively engage with concepts, and the use of textbooks to ensure a balanced approach. This stage also emphasizes the development of critical thinking, encouraging students to explore ideas, ask questions, and think independently, laying the groundwork for more advanced learning in the future.

Middle School Years

In the Middle Stage (ages 11-14), the focus shifts to subject-oriented learning, designed to deepen student's understanding of core subjects. The objective is to encourage abstract thinking and promote a more profound grasp of various disciplines. This stage introduces students to coding and vocational education, allowing them to explore practical skills alongside academic learning. Experiential learning continues to be a key feature, enabling students to apply their knowledge through hands-on activities in subjects like science, mathematics, arts, and social sciences.

Secondary Years

The Secondary Stage (ages 14-18) emphasizes a multidisciplinary study approach, fostering critical thinking and problem-solving skills. The objective is to prepare students for higher education and future employment by offering them a broad academic foundation. Key features include flexibility in subject choices, allowing students to tailor their education to their interests and career aspirations. Project-based learning is central to this stage, enabling students to engage deeply with topics and develop practical skills that are essential for real-world success.

FOUNDATIONAL STAGE CURRICULUM

Formative Years

The formative years (0 to 8 years) stand as a pinnacle of growth and maturation in a child's journey, where the cornerstone of comprehensive development and lifelong learning is set. Within this pivotal window, children who engage in enriching early childhood education programs unveil remarkable strides across social, educational, and intellectual dimensions. Our educational canvas paints with 21st-century hues, guided by the roadmap of NEP 2020. Embedded within our approach is a theme-based curriculum christened SMILE:

- S Unfolding in a Structured & Systematic manner
- M Weaving a Multi-Sensory tapestry
- I Engaging in Integrated Inquiry
- L Nurturing a Learner-Centered environment
- E Embracing an Experiential Curriculum

These principles orchestrate a symphony of skill development, ushering communication, critical thinking, creativity, and collaboration onto the stage of learning. At New Horizon, we reverently furnish each student with an opportunity to metamorphose into a paragon of virtue – a compassionate, conscientious, introspective, inventive, empathetic, and industrious human being.
